MADAME FREZZOLINI. —Two years ago when Mr. ULLMAN ongaged Madame DE LA GRANGE is issued a circular, from which I extract the following para-rash: he issued a circular, from which I extract the ionowing prophigraph;
"After Mesdames Jenny Lind, Sontag, Alboni and Grist, there remain but few singers who can claim an equal artistic standing. These few are Mesdames Freezoithi, Cruvelli, Viacdot Garcia and La Grange. The agents of the managers had an opportunity of hearing all these Artists, and they speedly discovered that both Freezoithis and Viardot Garcia were approaching rapidly the end of their career—their voices being nearly gone; while, from all their former artistic excellence, there remained ROTHING but a time-houored name."
